

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1901, 9 A. M.

NO. 16

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Mark Hardin sold to W. L. McCarty a bull calf for $25.
Good fresh milk cow for sale. W. H. Shanks, Stanford.
George T. Wood bought of James Messer 77 sheep at $5.
W. W. Hays sold to F. Reid three Jersey heifers for $65.
S. N. Matheny sold to W. M. Matheny a gelding for $75.
Wm. Caldwell sold a jack to a Louisville dealer for $225.—News.
In Louisville last week, wool that was bought for 25c, sold for 17c.
Dr. J. B. Owsley sold to J. W. James 250 barrels of corn at $2.50 delivered.
Dwight Root sold to R. B. & E. P. Woods a lot of corn at $2.50 delivered.
100 bushels clean Southern German millet seed for sale at Moreland. B. G. Gover, Hustonville.
FOR SALE.—Sixty-two calves and yearlings. Also two good young bulls. Mark Hardin, Stanford.
Durham Bros., of Campbellsville, bought of Smith & Nell, last week, 120 hogs at 5.30.—Adair News.
Garry Hermann, the Derby favorite, has been backed down to even money in the books for that event.
Schorr, the Memphis brewer, bought of H. P. Durham, of Fayette, a yearling colt by Imp. Goldcrest, for $1,000.
The Abbott and Crescens will not meet in a match race at Brighton Beach. The owners could not reach an agreement.
W. W. Lyon & Co., sold to G. A. Swinebroad 11 butcher heifers at 34c and to M. J. Farris three small mules and a horse at $50.
Mark Hardin refused $40 for a sow with eight young pigs the other day. He also declined an offer of $8 for a pig less than a month old.
M. D. Elmore sold to John C. Pappas seven two-weeks old pigs for $12.50. Mr. Elmore loaned the sow until the pigs are old enough to wean.
O. P. Huffman bought of Christ Camenish a 1,705-pound steer at 3.40, of a Marion county party 12-slop-fed cattle at 4c and of J. H. Baughman some hogs at 5c.
J. W. Bales sold 40 head of cattle, average weight 500 pounds, at $25 a head, or about 5 cents a pound. Mr. Bales reports the demand good and prices stiff.—Climax.

There were 250 cattle on the Georgetown market Monday. No sale for feeders. Yearlings brought 4c to 5c per cwt.; calves $14.50 to $20; heifers 3c to 3 1/2c; sheep $6.50 per head.
A decrease of 359,000 bushels occurred in the American visible supply of wheat last week, and nearly as much more was burned at St. Louis, which will affect the current week's showing.
J. R. & E. H. Beasley have decided to take their stallion, Marion Squirrel, to the Hustonville horse show Saturday afternoon instead of to Crab Orchard that day. They will show him to the East Enders later.
Andy Peach has sold his crop of tobacco of 20,000 pounds to the Continental Co., of Harrodsburg, for 7c all around. McKnight Bros. sold to the same company 17,000 pounds at same price.—Burgin Record.

Six stallions are now credited with 100 and more in the standard list of performers. Nutwood leads with 163, and is the sire of the dams of 164; Electioneer has 160, and sired the dams of 93; Onward has 153, and his daughters have produced 76; Red Wilkes has 149, and sired the dams of 105; Alcantara has 141, and sired the dams of 44, and Pilot Medium has 111, and sired the dams of 26.
The American Baptist Year Book for 1901 gives the number of regular Baptists in the United States at 4,233,226, as against 4,181,686 last year. This is a net gain of 51,540. The number of Baptized was 197,235, an average of 540 a day for the whole year. Georgia leads the States in numbers with 410,817, Virginia coming next with 349,346. Kentucky is 7th with 258,791. The church property is valued at $88,149,386, a gain over last year of $1,497,404. The aggregate contributions of all churches was $13,790,299.63, a gain of $1,441,772.73 over the previous year.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Do not leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be procured while you are on board the cars or steamship. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Miss Phoebe Crutchfield, aged 89, died in Danville this week.
Mrs. Susan Ingram, aged 82, is dead at Cane Valley, Adair county.
Bud James has sold his livery outfit at Harrodsburg to Jackson VanArsdale.
At Lawrenceburg Leroy Stratton was given a life term for the murder of Newton Searcy.
The Curry Grocery Company, whole sale grocers, have moved their main office to Junction City.
William Beazley, colored, was sentenced to four years' imprisonment for housebreaking in the Boyle circuit court.
N. A. Shouse, a theological student at Asbury College in Jessamine, is dead of typhoid fever. His home was in Louisiana.
John Woodyard, a miner, was seriously injured by slate falling on him in the bank of the Standard Coal Co., at East Bernstadt.
Mr. R. Lee Davis is astride the tripod at the Climax office, having been proffered and accepted the position of associate editor.—Richmond Register.
At Columbia, Mrs. Eliza Burton died from childbirth. Her husband, Sylvester Burton, developed a religious mania some time ago and is in an asylum.
The Junction City Red Men will have a big parade, supper, &c., Friday evening, 20th. The Hustonville tribe will assist in the ceremonies in the lodge room.
The Confederate Veterans of Boyle selected the following delegates and alternates to the Memphis reunion: H. T. Gray, J. A. Yeager and J. H. Baughman; alternates, R. W. Walker, S. D. Slaughter and J. W. Lytle.

HUBBLE.

Geo. Woods bought some hogs of L. C. King at 5c.
John Blanks caught two rats at once in a steel trap.
T. C. Rankin is the first one to plant corn in this community.
Mrs. J. T. Sutton, of Hustonville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sallie Cooley.
A. R. Moore will fill his pulpit at the Christian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
T. C. Rankin bought some small shoats of G. A. Swinebroad at $5.40. Geo. Wood bought a Jersey cow of M. B. Eubanks for $50.
Geo. Wood has a bulldog and two shepherds that kill every dog that comes on the farm, having killed about five so far. Let the good work go on.
Mr. T. E. Wood and wife, of Maywood, visited their son, Geo. Wood, the first part of the week. H. J. Luce let a pocket knife drop on his toe and cut it considerably a few days ago. Drs. Wesley and Carpenter operated on E. T. Miner, Tuesday, finding a cavity of proud flesh and dead blood and it is to be hoped he will improve more rapidly.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.
All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

GRAND OPERA CINCINNATI.—Low rates via Queen & Crescent Route, April 19th and 20th account Metropolitan Opera Co. Famous artists, such as Melba, Nordica, Jean and Edward De Reske and Mme. Schumann-Heink in repertoire that includes Die Walkure, Lucia di Lammermoor and Cavalleria Rusticana in three performances, Friday and Saturday, April 19 and 20. Ask ticket agents for particulars. Tickets on sale from all points as far South as Moreland.

The Stanford JOURNAL had an item in its church column, last issue, saying "The Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association will hang up $125,000 at its meeting this year." Bro. Walton keeps well posted on men and matters, and doubtless knows the proneness of many old front-pew shams who "play the pious," and who want to keep up in such matters.—Central Record.

Editor Walton has announced himself a candidate for railroad commissioner from this district and the man who beats him will know he has had a race. Mr. Walton is one of the ablest men in the State and in all things he has always been "Brave and Fearless and Loyal to the Great Common People."—Shelby Sentinel.

MATRIMONIAL.

Alex Gourley and Miss Sallie Ballard were made one at D. O. Ballard's yesterday.
Malinda Burns, 13, and Solomon Baker, 13, were married at Pineville, their parents present and assisting.
Mrs. Fannie Coney, a bride of less than a week, committed suicide by drowning at English, Ind. She left a note saying "Married life is not what I expected."
Miss Helen Dick, the handsome daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Dick, of Crab Orchard, will be married June 5 to Mr. Howard Countryman, of Rockford, Ill.
The engagement of Mr. George W. Welch, Jr., of Danville, to Miss Grace Gale, of St. Louis, is announced. Mr. Welch is at present located at Colorado Springs, Colo., where he is practicing law.
Adj. Corbin and Miss Elyth Patten, of Washington, D. C., are to be married soon. The bride-to-be is a very attractive brunette, and has long been an acknowledged leader in society circles.
Friends here have received invitations to the marriage of Miss Laura Lee Jarboe, of Lebanon, to Mr. Felix Smith Hamilton at St. Augustine's church in her city, May 4. Miss Jarboe made many friends during her stay with Miss Lizzie Beazley here.
The marriage of Morrison Breckinridge, son of the attorney general, to Miss Douglas Woodcock, also of Danville, was solemnized at the First Presbyterian church there by Rev. E. M. Green Wednesday afternoon. The couple left at once for their wedding tour, which includes a number of Eastern cities.
A dispatch from Lebanon says: "One of the prettiest home weddings that has occurred in Lebanon for some time was that of Dr. Hugh Murrey, formerly of Bowling Green, now a prominent druggist here, and Miss Lucia McAfee, which was solemnized at high noon by the Rev. Dr. T. A. Bracken. The attendants were Miss Pearl Burnside, of Stanford, and Miss Mary Kirk, of Lebanon, and Messrs. C. H. Litsey and W. B. Timmons, of this place."

CHURCH MATTERS.

There were 18 members added to the First Presbyterian church, Maysville, Sunday.
Rev. H. A. Sumrall, of Danville, will preach the annual sermon before Stanford Female College, Sunday, June 2, at the Christian church.
At the Christian church Sunday morning Rev. J. W. Hagin will preach on "Christian Citizenship;" at night, "What Must I Do to be Saved?"
Mr. J. C. Florence will be ordained a deacon of Stanford Baptist church next Sunday morning and the order of the service will be as follows:
1. Doxology.
2. Invocation.
3. Song, "Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty."
4. Song, "Come Thou Almighty King."
5. Announcements and morning of feeling.
6. Anthem by the choir.
7. Address, "Origin and Purpose of the Diaconate," Rev. R. B. Mahony.
8. Doctrinal Examination, conducted by Rev. J. B. Crouch.
9. Ordination prayer, Dr. Wm. Shelton.
10. Song, "Father I would humble be."
11. Address to deacon by the pastor.
12. Address to the church by Dr. Wm. Shelton.
13. Song, "Blest be the tie that binds."
Giving of hand of recognition and fellowship.
14. Benediction, Rev. R. B. Mahony.

LOCALS.

Kind of harness repairing. J. McClary.
SELESS shoes for women. Some new. Cummins & McClary.
Southern has again secured a lot of the Cincinnati Southern.
A well selected line of bed suits just received. Beazley & Co.
SEEDS, Onion Sets and Green Seed Potatoes at Warren & Co.
I sell all our cheap hay in 10 or 15. So come quick. J. H. Baughman & Co.
I sell corn, oats and all kinds of feed for 10 days only. J. H. Baughman & Co.
I sell Bronze turkey eggs and duck eggs at $1 per setting. E. Farris, Stanford.

LANCASTER.

Charley Burdette bought of I. M. Shelby a combined mare for $102.
A clerk in one of the largest dry goods stores is on the eve of a matrimonial venture.
The Bible Society held its last meeting at the Baptist parsonage and was conducted by Miss Bruce Humphrey.
An architect will be here in the next few days to draw up plans for remodeling and repairing the Christian church.
The Social and Industrial Club will be entertained next Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Wm. Berkele on Lexington Avenue.
Mrs. Royce, an aged woman of the Paint Lick locality, died of the infirmities of age and the burial took place in that vicinity.
The Big Four Minstrels will appear at the Opera House this evening and will furnish an interesting and strikingly unique program.
Miss Lula Ward, the 15 year old daughter of Wm. Ward, is lying at death's door, after several months' illness from consumption.
The young men gave a hop Tuesday evening at the Mason Hotel in honor of Miss Christine Bradley's guest, Miss Tevis Carpenter, of Stanford.
G. A. Swinebroad bought of various parties 300 lambs for May and June delivery at from $4.85 to $5.50 per head; stock heifers at 34c and stock hogs at 5c.
Mrs. Durham and son, of Middleburg, are visiting Mrs. Dr. I. S. Wesley. Robert Little, of Richmond, has been the guest of Prof. Thomas Hampton.
The faculty of the graded school are making all necessary preparations to entertain the 350 guests expected at the Blue Grass Tournament held here in May.
Wm. Rigby, a student of the college at Lebanon, O., has returned to his home within about six miles of this place, quite ill of that dangerous disease, measles.
One of the richest men of the community was seen walking round the streets the other day accompanied by a mascot. What does this mean, matrimony, or some other venturesome step?
John W. Woods, a salesman of the J. M. Logan Dry Goods Company, sold a house and lot on McGroarty street in Danville for $1,150 cash. Mrs. M. E. Stevens was the purchaser and it is a neat four-room cottage.
Messrs. Louis Landram and John M. Farra have been to Louisville this week in the effort of securing better railroad facilities for this city. The L. & N. Co. was requested not only to continue the night trains, but to furnish better day service.

Mrs. Fannie Farra, son, Erie, and daughter, Mrs. S. C. Denny, were called to Lexington this week by the extreme illness of Mrs. Headley. Mrs. Farra's sister-in-law. Mrs. Headley is possessed of a large estate, of which the Farras will receive a portion.
The last of a quartette of handsome brunette sisters of the Paint Lick section is busy selecting an elaborate trousseau. The sisters have shown themselves to be "the five wise virgins" in that their matrimonial ventures are fine financial investments.

Mrs. G. M. Patterson, the W. C. T. U. district president, is preparing an interesting program for the convention to be held at Livingston, April 30, May 1 and 2. Revs. C. H. Palmer, G. W. Young and Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp will deliver interesting addresses on the occasion.
Mr. Malcolm Tillet has rented a plot of ground from T. C. Curren and will cultivate strawberries on an extensive scale. He has bought the finest varieties from Hillenmeyer, of Lexington. B. Foley, a Fayette fruit grower, is setting the plants in the latest improved style.

Mrs. H. M. Ballou and children have returned from a visit to Lincoln county. Miss Rhoda White, of Mt. Vernon, is with her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Hobbs. Mrs. W. T. Browning, of Lexington, is attending at the bedside of Camp sisters, Misses Al and Bettie Anger, who are still quite sick.

The effects of T. L. Sanders, who payed a short time ago of blood-poison at that, were sold at public auction on fine Thursday at his late home in the Stone neighborhood. Three cows, several calves, one two-year-old work mule, 25 He also, 10,000 pounds of tobacco, a lot of things about logs, rye and corn, and a stock of store goods were all sold at public that day.

Mrs. Rebecca C. Royce and W. M. drive both, both of the Upper End of just one county, were married at the residence of the bride's mother on Wednesday. Mrs. Rothwell was the daughter of Wm. Johnson, who died so suddenly about two years ago, and was a successful life insurance agent, the amount of $100,000 or more. While the matter was in litigation and not long after her father's death, Miss Johnson was married to a Mr. Royce, from whom she obtained a divorce in line. The March term of court. The insurance companies paid over about $50,000, of which Mrs. Royce received a get in here.

Look Here!

If you are thinking about

New Clothes.

We believe we have the best line in this section—not only in Clothing, but Furnishings, Hats, Shoes and all that is worn by men and boys.

IT PAYS TO TRADE AT

THE GLOBE.

Merchant Tailoring, Cleaning, Pressing and Repairing.

Your money back if you're not satisfied.

MILLER & HIRSCH, Danville.

Successors to J. L. Frohman & Co.

CARPETS.

- Carpets sold by sample -

Ingrains, Brussels, Moquettes, Velvets and Axminsters. All carpets cut to fit the floor. You can make it yourself or we can have it made at little additional cost.

- - See Our Samples. - -

Our terms are CASH.

H. J. McROBERTS.

BOYLE NICHOLS.

C. L. GOVER.

NICHOLS & GOVER, UNDERTAKERS - AND - EMBALMERS, Danville, Kentucky

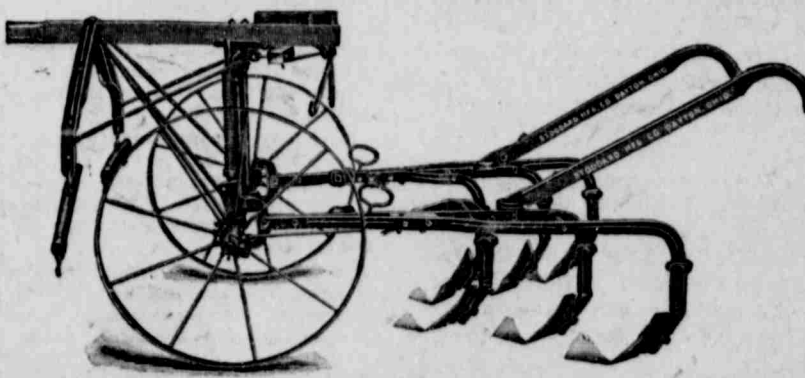

We have just received a handsome new hearse and are fully equipped for directing funerals.

OUR REPAIRING DEPARTMENT

Is well prepared for the renewing and renovating of Furniture, Mattresses, Upholstering, &c. Terms reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed.
Mr. Gover is president and Mr. Nichols secretary of the Boyle and Lincoln County Burial Association, the object of which is to provide for the funeral expenses of its members and are the association's undertakers. J. S. Goode is the agent for Lincoln County. Phone 175.

A. C. SINE, CONTRACTOR & BUILDER, STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

I make close estimates on work and guarantee perfect satisfaction as to workmanship and material, as will be attested by any one of the many parties for whom I have builded during the 15 years that I have been in business here.
I carry a full stock of Doors, Sash, Blinds, Metal Roofing, Rough and Dressed Lumber, Lath, Shingles, Etc.
I will duplicate any prices offered.

Buy our Tiger line of Farm Implement and you will make no mistake. Tiger Disc Harrows, Tiger Corn Planters, Tiger Disc Cultivators and Tiger Hay Rakes.

HIGGINS & MCKINNEY, Stanford